After the prayer the following hymn will be sung by the Choral Union, in which all present are invited to join:

MEMORIAL HYMN.

[TUNE—OLD HUNDRED.]

Lord of the earth, the sky, the sea,
We raise our hearts in praise to Thee
And ask Thy blessed presence while,
Through flowers, we make the sad graves smile.

Graves of our heroes; where, in trust.
Is held, by Earth, their sacred dust;
There to remain till that dread day
When it and heaven shall pass away.

Thou in humanity didst give
Thyself to Death, that we might live;
And they, because of Thy decree,
Yielded their lives to keep us free.

O, Gracious Father! grant them rest,
In peace, upon Thy loving breast;
And bid them with the martyrs stand
When time is o'er, on Thy right hand.

After which comrades and friends will proceed to strew flowers over the graves, while the band discourses solemn music. At the sound of the bugle, the assemblage will again gather at the speaker's stand.

Hymn by the Choral Union.

will then be made by the Hon. JOHN A. KASSON. At the conclusion of the remarks, all present are invited to join in singing "America," after which the Doxology.

AMERICA.

My country! 'Tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty!
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died;
Land of the Pilgrim's pride,
From every mountain side,
Let freedom ring.

My native country! thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills,
Like that above.

Our fathers' God! to thee,
Author of liberty!
To thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright.
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King!

The procession will then proceed to the Catholic Cemetery where, after services by REV. THOS. F. GUNN, the ceremony of strewing flowers will be gone through with. The ceremonies concluded, the procession will move into the city via Sixth street, to the Veteran Guard armory, where it will be dismissed.

Our Fallen Heroes.

Lightly press the hallowed ground,
There our martyred patriots sleep:
Bow down the head in grief profound,
And o'er their smouldering ashes weep—
That our loved country might be free
They died—they died for you and me.

Above them bid the old flag wave
The dear old flag they loved so well:
The ensign which they died to save.
Dear freedom's starry sentinel!
Flag which the nations joy to see
They died to save to you and me.

Cull from Flora's fragrant bowers
Choicest of the gems of Spring;
O'er their graves in rosy showers
Scatter them, and softly sing:
For celestial Liberty
They died—they died for you and me.
